| Wed. Feb. 14, 2024 Lectio Divina Ash Wed Genesis 9:11, 13, 16 NRSV God said to Noah, "I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth. I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth." Psalm 22 O my Beloved, why have You forsaken me? Why are You so far, abandoning me as I groan in misery? O my Beloved, I cry by day, but You do not answer; and by night, but find no rest. I seem as nothing, hardly alive; scomed and despised by many. Those who see me make fun at my expense, they ridicule and gossip among themselves; "Commit yourself to the Most High; let Love deliver you, you who delight in the Most High; let Love deliver you, you who delight in the Most High; let Love deliver you, you who delight in the Most High; let Love deliver you, you who delight on the Most High; let Love deliver you, you who delight on the Most High; let Love deliver you, you who delight on the Most High! Yet, You are the One who took me from the womb; You kept me safe upon my mother's breasts. Upon You I was cast from my birth, and ever since my mother bore me, You have been my strength. Come close to me, for trouble is near and there is none to help. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are weak; my heart is like wax, melting within my breast; My strength is broken as a shard of pottery, and my mouth is dry; You have laid me in the dust of death But You, O Beloved, be not far off! |
