Wed. 19, 2023 Lectio Divina	Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus ... While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near... and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" Then one of them ... answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place ...?" Then he said to them, "Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. Luke 24:13-30 NRSV
